Original Complaint Filed: July 26, 2012
 Trial Date: March 17, 2014

PRADO Jose Prado (“PRADO” or “PLAINTIFF”) hereby alleges as follows:

PARTIES:

1. Plaintiff Jose Prado is an individual that was employed by Defendant Federal Express Corporation (“DEFENDANT”) at all relevant times prior to the unlawful discharge at issue in this complaint. PRADO is, and was at all relevant times, a resident of California and this Federal judicial district.

2. Defendant Federal Express Corporation is a Delaware Corporation, headquartered in Memphis Tennessee, and with offices throughout California including within this district.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE:

3. The Federal District Court for the Northern District of California has Federal Subject Matter jurisdiction over this complaint pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §1331 and 42 U.S.C. §12101 et seq.

4. This Court has Supplemental Jurisdiction over the California law claims pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §1367.

5. Venue is proper in this Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §1391(a)(2) in that a substantial part of the events and/or omission on which the claims herein are based occurred in this Court’s district.

GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

6. On or about September 1997, PRADO began working at DEFENDANT’s facilities through a temp agency. On or about December 1997, PRADO was officially hired by DEFENDANT, as a Part-Time Handler, through the efforts of Samuel Chin, DEFENDANT’s Operational Manager.

7. On or about May 2000 PRADO suffered a right knee injury; while working at DEFENDANT. Mr PRADO was sent to get a truck ASAP and the pavement was uneven and in disrepair and was told to hurry.

8. While recovering from his right knee surgery, on or about November 2000

1 PRADO was out on a Medical Leave of Absence for right knee surgery.

2 9. On or about January 2001 PRADO suffered his first stroke; PRADO was in a
3 coma for about a month in the Intensive Care Unit of San Jose Hospital. PRADO's
4 physicians gave him a slim chance at survival. In total, PRADO was hospitalized for 5 approximately three months. PRADO's coworkers and managers frequently visited him.
6 Ramona McMaster, DEFENDANT's Manager, was kept informed of PRADO's condition.
7 PRADO's first medical leave of absence was for approximately a year.

8 10. On or about November 2001 PRADO returned to work, reporting to his manager,
9 Samuel Chin. Understanding PRADO's condition Mr. Chin had PRADO doing light duty
10 tasks such as: scanning documents. On or about December 2001 another. DEFENDANT's
11 Manager, David Correia, pulled PRADO off of doing light duty and sent PRADO to 12 download freight containers. The practice, pattern of DEFENDANT's Management 13 assigning PRADO to do light duty tasks only to revert back to assigning PRADO to do non-
14 light duty tasks began here and continued to the day

15 11. For approximately 8 years PRADO performed the essential functions of his 16 position – sometimes with and sometimes without reasonable accommodation – struggling
17 when he was not provided accommodation. DEFENDANT's Management recognized
18 PRADO's job performance on 2 separate occasions. The first Bravo Zulu Award was given
19 on or about June 1999 and the second Bravo Zulu Award was given on or about March 2008.
20 On or about July 2009 Ms. McMaster told PRADO directly that "Ruben Maynes (RHV Sr.
21 Manager) is satisfied with your job performance."

22 12. From what PRADO experienced and witnessed: PRADO was discriminated 23 against. In particular, the average work day for Part-Time Handlers was 2-3 hours however,
24 the Handlers' hours depend on the volume of freight coming in and going out of the station.
25 Some Handlers, just as PRADO routinely received "extra hours" prior to his first leave. Prior 26 to his first leave of absence, PRADO routinely worked 6 days a week. PRADO was used as a
27 "runner", sent to "work" at Cisco Systems and a driver's "helper". As a result, PRADO
28

1 routinely worked 8-10 hour shifts and continued to be classified as a Part-Time Handler. As a
2 Part-Time Handler it was not mandatory to accept these "additional" hours. DEFENDANT
3 Management made the decision which Handler would be given the opportunity to make more
4 money working extra hours. Beginning on or about November 2001 DEFENDANT
5 Management no longer offered PRADO this financial opportunity as a result of his illness.

6 13. PRADO had a forklift certificate from another company. PRADO was not 7 allowed to obtain a forklift certificate for working at DEFENDANT's facility despite 8 repeated requests for this certificate. After PRADO returned from his first Medical Leave he
9 continued to drive the forklift, without certification and incident, and DEFENDANT
10 Management allowed it.

11 14. On or about 2005 Paul Nadeau, DEFENDANT's Manager, banned PRADO from 12 using the forklift. On or about July 2006 Mr. Nadeau suspended PRADO for driving the 13 forklift. PRADO explained how he was ordered to move the supply freight by Delfin
14 Hernandez, SJC Coordinator. PRADO explained he was only following management's
15 orders. PRADO also reminded Mr. Nadeau how he had been requesting his forklift
16 certification; but, DEFENDANT Management won't allow it. Mr. Nadeau responded: "The 17 reason you don't get the forklift certification is because I don't want it." On or about July 18 2006 PRADO reported this incident to Angela Suazo, SJC Sr. Manager.

19 15. Throughout this time period DEFENDANT's Management would order PRADO
20 to work faster despite PRADO reminding management of his disability and limitations.
21 PRADO repeatedly requested light duty. PRADO was made to suffer, work in a hostile and 22 unsafe work environment and his health and safety were jeopardized. These incidents of 23 adverse employment actions are both substantial and detrimental.

24 16. Because of his medical condition, PRADO would occasionally be injured..
25 Because PRADO has limited feeling on his left side there would be times that PRADO did
26 not know he was injured; until, his coworkers would be complaining to a DEFENDANT
27 Manager, such as Steve Evans, "There's blood on the boxes and packages." Steve Evans and 28

1 other DEFENDANT Managers did not care. PRADO was told: "Go get a band-aid and go
2 back to work."

3 17. On or about July 2007 Steve Evans pushed PRADO to work faster. PRADO
4 walked out of the container and told Mr. Evans: "You're harassing me because you know I
5 am disabled and the left side of my body doesn't work good."

6 18. On or about late November 2005 PRADO was on his way to download boxes.
7 DEFENDANT Managers, Cathy Doyle and Ryan Grace, were in the freight containers area.
8 Ryan commented about PRADO's disability to Cathy. Cathy replied: "He is pretending to be 9 disabled."

10 19. On or about March 27, 2007, PRADO attended a Handlers' meeting at 11 approximately 8:45AM. The DEFENDANT's Managers present during the meeting were:
12 Angela Suazo, Paul Nadeau and Ryan Grace. They confirmed what Lavinsky and other
13 coworkers had been telling PRADO for a long time. During the meeting, Angela Suazo (SJC 14 Sr. Manager) stated: "We have been trying to fire him [PRADO] but it's been hard to get rid 15 of him."

16 20. On or about October 2007 PRADO reported to Craig Vanderberg, Sr. HR Rep., 17 how he was being systematically harassed by DEFENDANT Management, how 18 DEFENDANT Management had created a hostile environment to try to make PRADO quit.
19 PRADO explained to Mr. Vanderberg that this situation started after he became disabled.
20 Approximately two weeks later Mr. Evans apologized but no other actions were taken.

21 21. Many times Delfin Hernandez, SJC Coordinator, would comment how PRADO's 22 "physical disabilities do not exist." Mr. Hernandez would also have PRADO walk back and 23 forth in front of him and then comment: "I do not see anything wrong with you." Then on or 24 about April 2008 Mr. Hernandez told PRADO: "I get mad when you explain you're disabled.
25 I don't see any disability. You are normal." PRADO reported Mr. Hernandez to the 26 DEFENDANT Manager, Olga DeHaro.

27 22. On or about April 2008 the security guard at the SJC Station suggested to 28

1 PRADO that he bring in a doctor's note to help enforce his rights to a reasonable
2 accommodation.

3 23. On or about, May 29, 2008, PRADO formally requested reasonable
4 accommodation. The written request stated that he could not perform "lifting and, carrying"
5 and that he needed light duty. He noted in this request that needed "Light Duty. I did light
6 duty job before Ron Abad sent me to down load freight from the containers."

7 24. On or about May 2008 PRADO took in the doctor's note stating: "Jose Prado has 8 been under my care for HBP, stroke with left side weakness. Light work. No lifting,
9 carrying." PRADO gave the doctor's note to his manager, Olga DeHaro. Ms. DeHaro made a 10 copy of the note and return the original to PRADO. Ms. DeHaro informed PRADO: "It's 11 good for only one day" despite there being no such limitation by the doctor.

12 25. On or about May 2008 PRADO faxed the accommodation form to Ms. McMaster.
13 PRADO again re-faxed the accommodation form two more times. Ms. McMaster called 14 PRADO to inform him she received "the same fax three times." Ms. McMaster also advised
15 PRADO to "look out for a job you can perform in the station and let me know."

16 26. On or about June 2008 PRADO's physician faxed the Physical Capacities Form to 17 PRADO's employer. On or about June 2008 PRADO contacted Ms. McMaster to request the 18 scanning position. Ms. McMaster explained to PRADO how she would call the SJC
19 Managers and let them know about his "new accommodation job"; but, PRADO continued to 20 be assigned non light duty tasks which included heavy lifting. PRADO repeatedly contacted
21 Ms. McMaster and requested her help. Ms. McMaster ignored PRADO.

22 27. On or about October 2008 Lupe informed PRADO that Ron Abad hadn't told her
23 what PRADO was supposed to do that day, but she stated that she did not think Abad wanted
24 PRADO to do scanning. Also, on or about October 2008 PRADO went to do recycles and the 25 front counter supplies. While doing this job, Olga DeHaro told PRADO to replace Gilbert
26 Acosta and do scanning. PRADO was only allowed to do scanning for approximately 7
27 minutes then Ms. DeHaro replaced PRADO and sent him back to do recycles which required
28

1 heavy lifting.

2 28. PRADO was harassed by Delfin Hernandez, Station Coordinator, of Cuban decent.
3 For example, since at least April 2008, Delfin Hernandez, has inquired about PRADO's
4 immigration status on various occasion without justification. However, similarly situated
5 employees not of PRADO's protected category, Nicaraguan origin, have not been subject to 6 the same or similar treatment by Delfin Hernandez.

7 29. On or about November 2008 PRADO was downloading freight and inquired
8 about his job accommodation. Ms. DeHaro then falsely claimed PRADO had never turned it
9 in. PRADO informed Ms. DeHaro that he had faxed the same form to Ms. McMaster three 10 times. PRADO further explained to Ms. DeHaro how he had spoken to Ms. McMaster over
11 the phone and she had assured him that she would be talking to management to have PRADO
12 do scanning.

13 30. On or about December 2008 PRADO was injured. PRADO cut his left hand;
14 while downloading boxes. PRADO showed his bleeding hand to Ruben Anaya, SJC Sr.
15 Manager. Mr. Anaya told PRADO: "Put a band-aid on it." Later that day PRADO was 16 pulling supply boxes away with one of the carts. Delfin Hernandez called PRADO to walk
17 straight at him without any support. PRADO did as he was instructed. Mr. Hernandez then
18 told PRADO: "I see you as perfect. I don't see anything wrong with your walking. You walk 19 better than before."

20 31. On or about December 2008 PRADO contacted Ms. McMaster and forwarded a
21 copy of the doctor's note. PRADO told her he was returned to the position to download
22 freight from the cans. This position was assigned to PRADO by the DEFENDANT Manager, 23 Ron Abad. PRADO reminded Ms. McMaster how this was not a light duty position and it is 24 not what PRADO's physician recommended. PRADO also asked Ms. McMaster if this was 25 another attempt at a "constructive discharge." Ms. McMaster ignored PRADO. Ms.
26 McMaster openly disregard both the law and company policy with respect to PRADO.

27 32. On or about January 8, 2009, PRADO filed his initial complaint with the EEOC.
28

1 On or about May 1, 2012, PRADO received NOTICE-OF-RIGHT-TO-SUE dated April 26,
2 2012.

3 33. On or about January or February 2009 PRADO and other DEFENDANT
4 employees were notified that the SJC Station was going to be closed and they were going to 5 be transferred to other stations. PRADO was transferred to the RHV Station.

6 34. Finally, on or about March 2009 PRADO was presented a Job Offer with 7 Accommodation ("CONTRACT"). The CONTRACT stated that :

8 The Human Capital Management Program Committee has reviewed your case and 9 you have been approved for reasonable accommodation for the position of Part Time
10 Handler in the RHV station at 710 Dado Street in San Jose, CA. The job
11 accommodations are as follows: due to your lifting/push/pull restrictions of 20 lbs
12 and limitation on use of your left hand for grasping and manipulation, you will be 13 assigned scanning documents and boxes on the AM sort.

14 35. PRADO accepted this accommodation by signing and marking next to the blank
15 which stated "I accept this position and its terms as outlined in this offer letter" and started
16 working scanning documents and boxes on the AM sort subject to the 20 pound weight limit.

17 36. Despite this, Ruben Maynes, RHV Sr. Manager, assigned PRADO to do such non 18 light duty tasks as: recycles and belt split. PRADO was only allowed to do scanning on 4
19 separate occasions and for only a short period of time. This occurred on April 8, 9, 23 and 24.
20 PRADO was not provided with training for use of the ROADS GUN – a training that would 21 have aided PRADO with light-duty scanning work. A coworker by the name of Lorna 22 Hernandez was allowed routinely to do the scanning. Ms. Hernandez has less seniority than 23 PRADO and did not have a light-duty restriction.

24 37. As a result, DEFENDANT breached the terms and conditions of the 25 CONTRACT. For example, after agreeing to the CONTRACT, PRADO was routinely 26 assigned to do such non light duty tasks as: downloading freight, belt split, recycling, pull 27 freight from the belt and stacking freight, palletized freight and organizing the supplies.
28 These tasks exceeded the 20 pound weight limit and were not the tasks which the

1 accommodation required (scanning).

2 38. On most occasions, PRADO needed to use his left hand to assist him in these 3 non-light duty tasks. When organizing the supplies PRADO would be required to use the 4 pallet jack. PRADO used only his right side to push/pull the pallet jack. PRADO
5 pushed/pulled pallets of supplies having a maximum weight of approximately 2,000 pounds
6 or about 1,000 kilograms.

7 39. On or about May 2009 PRADO notified Ms. McMaster that the Job Offer with 8 Accommodation had been breached. PRADO was made to work without reasonable
9 accommodation and in particular PRADO was lifting a dangerous amount of weight. Ms.
10 McMaster ignored PRADO.

11 40. On or about June 18, 2009, PRADO worked his scheduled shift; without 12 reasonable accommodation. PRADO was assigned to split the belt, sorted documents and 13 recycles. Defendant was aware how many of the packages exceeded PRADO's
14 lifting/push/pull restrictions of 20 pounds. PRADO was routinely assigned to do these tasks.
15 All during his shift he felt ill but PRADO performed his assigned duties. Thereafter,
16 PRADO suffered his Second Stroke.

17 41. The Second Stroke and massive physical and mental damages caused thereby was 18 a direct consequence of DEFENDANT's violation of the accommodation CONTRACT. In 19 particular, PRADO's lifting – at DEFENDANT's command – of packages of greater than 20 20 pounds and his requirement of carrying out non-scanning duties caused the damages to 21 PRADO.

22 42. On or about July 17, 2009, PRADO's doctor provided an estimate of when 23 PRADO would be released to return to work. On or about October 16, 2009, was the 24 estimated return to work date. Pursuant to company policy PRADO could have had the 25 Defendant extend PRADO's Medical Leave and still retain his same "accommodated
26 position". This right was not afforded to PRADO.

27 43. PRADO was released to return to work on October 15, 2009. PRADO faxed Ms.
28

1 McMaster the doctor's note. Ms. McMaster was to fax PRADO's doctor the Physical
2 Capacities Form. But, Ms. McMaster claimed to have "forgotten" to do this prior to taking 3 her own leave.

4 44. On or about October 26, 2009, PRADO had not hear anything regarding his return
5 to work. As a result, PRADO contacted Ms. McMaster and this is the first he learned Ms.
6 McMaster was claiming to have forgotten to fax the form.

7 45. The form Ms. McMaster sent to PRADO's doctor suggested that PRADO was 8 working an 8 hour day which was not true.

9 46. On or about January 19, 2010, PRADO met with Craig Vanderberg Mr.
10 Vanderberg confirmed that although substantial harmed by the stroke PRADO could still 11 adequately perform the functions described in the CONTRACT.

12 47. Despite this, on or about February 2010 PRADO received a letter from Jennifer
13 Ramos on behalf of DEFENDANT. This letter informed PRADO that his accommodation
14 request was being denied.

15 48. On or about March 2010 PRADO sent a letter to DEFENDANT requesting 16 reconsideration. The only response PRADO received was his termination letter dated April 17 19, 2010.

18 49. On or about May 20, 2010, PRADO filed his second complaint with the EEOC.
19 On or about May 1, 2012, PRADO received NOTICE-OF-RIGHT-TO-SUE dated April 26, 20 2012.

21 CLAIMS

22 FIRST Cause of Action

23 Failure to Accommodate Disability in Violation of ADA

24 50. PRADO incorporates each paragraph above as if fully set forth herein.

25 51. Pursuant to 42 U.S.C. §12111, an employer is required to reasonably
26 accommodate the physical disabilities of an employee.

27 52. DEFENDANT failed to reasonably accommodate PRADO's disabilities, as described above in this Complaint by delaying or refusing to accommodate, by failing to adhere to its accommodation and by failure to accommodate for rehire or permit PRADO to return to work after his second stroke.
28

53. DEFENDANT's acts and omissions described above constitute a failure to reasonably accommodate PRADO's disabilities in violation of 42 U.S.C. § 12101 et. seq.

54. The conduct of DEFENDANT as alleged herein was unlawful, deliberate, malicious, despicable, and oppressive, and was done in order to injure and damage PRADO. DEFENDANT consciously disregarded the rights of PRADO to be free from disability discrimination. To the extent that the conduct was engaged in by employees or agents of DEFENDANT, DEFENDANT authorized or ratified the conduct or was itself guilty of oppression or malice. The conduct was perpetrated by, or done with the knowledge and consent of, a managing agent of DEFENDANT.

55. WHEREFORE, PRADO prays for relief against DEFENDANT as set forth below.

SECOND Cause of Action

Disability Discrimination in Violation of the ADA

56. PRADO incorporates each above paragraph as if fully set forth herein.

57. Pursuant to 42 U.S.C. §12112, it is an unlawful employment practice for an employer to discriminate, discharge or harass a person from employment because of a disability, or perceived disability.

58. Defendant's acts and omissions as described above, including the failure to accommodate and/or rehire, and harassment violated 42 U.S.C. §12112.

59. The conduct of DEFENDANT as alleged herein was unlawful, deliberate, malicious, despicable, and oppressive, and was done in order to injure and damage PRADO. DEFENDANT consciously disregarded the rights of PRADO to be free from disability discrimination. To the extent that such conduct was engaged in by employees or agents of DEFENDANT, DEFENDANT authorized or ratified the conduct or was itself guilty of

1 oppression or malice. The conduct was perpetrated by, or done with the knowledge and
2 consent of, a managing agent of DEFENDANT.

3 60. WHEREFORE, PRADO prays for relief against DEFENDANT as set forth
4 below.

5 THIRD Cause of Action

6 National Origin Discrimination in Violation of Title VII of Civil Rights Act

7 61. PRADO incorporates the above paragraphs as if fully set forth herein.

8 62. Defendants engaged in the practice of unlawful practice of national origin
9 discrimination in violation of §703(a) of Title VII, 42 U.S.C. §2000e-2(a)(1) by 10 discriminating against PRADO by subjecting him to harassment because of his national 11 origin, Nicaragua.

12 63. The effect of the actions complained above in paragraph 28 has been to deprive 13 PRADO of equal employment opportunities and otherwise adversely affect his status as an 14 employee because of his national origin.

15 64. The unlawful employment practice complained of herein was intentional.

16 65. The unlawful employment practice complained of herein was done with malice
17 or with reckless indifference to the federally protect rights of PRADO.

18 66. WHEREFORE, PRADO prays for relief against DEFENDANT as set forth
19 below.

20 FOURTH Cause of Action

21 Failure to Accommodate Disability in Violation of FEHA

22 67. PRADO incorporates the above paragraphs as if fully set forth herein.

23 68. Pursuant to California Gov. Code §12940(m) it is an unlawful employment 24 practice for an employer to fail to reasonably accommodate the known physical disability of 25 an employee.

26 69. PRADO was qualified to carry out light-duty tasks and indeed, DEFENDANT
27 agreed to make this accommodation limiting PRADO's tasks to scanning packages and 28

1 limiting his lifting to no more than 20 pounds.

2 70. PRADO was able to carry out the essential functions of this accommodation, or 3 could have easily been trained to carry out the essential function of the position as detailed in 4 the CONTRACT if given this agreed upon reasonable accommodation, and if given training
5 on new scanning equipment as necessary for this reasonable accommodation.

6 71. DEFENDANT failed to reasonably accommodate the disabilities of PRADO.
7 Instead, it subjected PRADO to a dangerous working conditions of doing non-scanning work
8 and heavy lifting which caused PRADO's second stroke and with it massive brain and other
9 physiological damages.

10 72. DEFENDANT failed to accommodate PRADO by permitting PRADO to 11 continue to work as a scanner after his second stroke.

12 73. DEFENDANT's acts and omissions described above constitute a failure to 13 reasonably accommodate the disabilities of PRADO in violation of California Gov. Code
14 §12940 et seq.

15 74. The conduct of DEFENDANT as alleged herein was unlawful, deliberate,
16 malicious, despicable, and oppressive, and was done in order to injure and damage PRADO.
17 DEFENDANT's consciously disregarded the rights of PRADO to be free from disability
18 discrimination. To the extent that conduct was engaged in by employees or agents of 19 DEFENDANT, they authorized or ratified the conduct or were themselves guilty of 20 oppression or malice. The conduct was perpetrated by, or done with the knowledge and
21 consent of, a managing agent of DEFENDANT.

22 75. WHEREFORE, PRADO prays for relief against DEFENDANT as set forth
23 below.

24 FIFTH Cause of Action

25 Failure to Engage in the Interactive Process in violation of FEHA

26 76. PRADO incorporate the above paragraphs as if fully set forth herein.

27 77. Under California Gov. Code § 12940(n), it is an unlawful employment practice for 28

1 an employer to fail to engage in a timely, good faith, interactive process with the employee to 2 determine effective reasonable accommodations, if any, in response to a request for 3 reasonable accommodation by an employee with a known disability.

4 78. DEFENDANT failed to engage in this mandated interactive process in good faith
 5 with PRADO in response to PRADO's myriad requests by first failing for many months to 6 meet and enter into any reasonable accommodation and then once the reasonable
 7 accommodation was agreed to, refusing to respond to PRADO's complaints that it was not 8 being carried out. DEFENDANT also failed to engage in the interactive process after 9 PRADO attempted to return to work after his second stroke.

10 79. Instead, DEFENDANT either ignored PRADO's complaints, issued 11 accommodations that it did not adhere to, and eventually terminated (and/or failed to 12 continue accommodating) PRADO.

13 80. DEFENDANT's acts and omissions as described above violated Gov. Code
 14 §12940(n).

15 81. The conduct of DEFENDANT as alleged herein was unlawful, deliberate,
 16 malicious, despicable, and oppressive, and was done in order to injure and damage PRADO.
 17 DEFENDANT consciously disregarded the rights of PRADO to be free from disability
 18 discrimination. To the extent that extent that the conduct was engaged in by employees or 19 agents of DEFENDANT, they authorized or ratified this conduct or were themselves guilty
